Sewerage System Considered

At a special meeting of the Council, held on Saturday night at the Council Chambers, there were present His Worship the Mayor, and Councillors Bowen, Hutton and Holmes. The complaint that rigors and frosts were being visited contrary to provisions of the Lord's Day Observance Act was considered and it was announced that persons making a practice of doing so had been asked to cease contravening the Act.

C. W. James and James McKinney were nominated for Justice of the Peace.

Attention was called to another convention to be held on Monday at High River, to which a representative from this municipal council was invited. Councillor Holmes was asked to represent Clareholm.

After a discussion it was decided to have the lights off between 1 o'clock and 5 o'clock a.m., as a saving in fuel and running expense.

The need of sewers and the wisdom of beginning to make preparation for same was also discussed and by motion it was decided to go into the matter and if it was necessary to have our borrowing power as a municipal corporation increased for this improvement, that steps be taken to do so, that a sewerage system might be installed.

A Pioneer Passes

The death occurred last night at about 6 p.m., at Clareholm, of T. M. (Ding) who for a long time was identified in business and social work with the history of the town of Clareholm. The funeral will be held on Saturday at 2:30 p.m. from the late residence of the deceased on Knoll Hill.

The sympathies of all the townsfolk go out to the bereaved family. The deceased was aged 31 years, 7 months and 14 days.

Rally Day Celebrated

The annual Rally Day service of the Methodist S. S. last Sunday, was largely attended and a most interesting address on Robert Rallos, the founder of the Sunday School, was delivered by the Rev. J. M. Harrison in the morning. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion. A special feature of the decorations was a display with the words "Rally Day" in hand, the work of E. G. Barber. Twists of bread were used for the letters and at each end a sheaf of wheat was outlined in bread also. The idea was to make one. A printed programme was in the hands of the scholars and was followed in full. Chimes by the school led by their own S. S. choir were rendered. The regular Rally Day service over the whole continent was set for Sept. 24th, but owing to the pastor's absence on his return, this service was held till his return.

Going Homesteading

G. H. England who has been M. Fisher's assistant for some time, is leaving next Monday to live on his homestead about seventy miles north of Medicine Hat. J. S. Morrison, our ex-pellegrine, accompanies him to the same district. Frank Staples may also join the party on Monday next. W. Lidenfield, also on M. Fisher's staff, will go to the same district later in the month. All are young men, well and favorably known in town and their going will be generally regretted.

A Postponement

The two which was announced by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church for tomorrow, (Friday) at 5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Cumming has been postponed indefinitely owing to the demise of T. M. Haig last evening.

Helped Themselves At Stately Fair

A glance over the published list of prize-winners at the Stately Fair last Friday shows a goodly number of Clareholm exhibitors at the front. A. E. Hunter with the Stewart Ranch entries in the heavy horse classes securing ten firsts, two seconds where he beat himself, and two thirds. W. F. Cook got one first with a yearling. Chas. N. Booth's single driver won a blue ticket and his team of roadsters a red one.

In the ladies' fancy work the name of Mrs. W. T. Highy appears for three first prizes and two second prizes with a first prize for potatoes of the red variety. The display in both departments was of a good quality and the entries were numerous.

Early Morning Blaze

Tuesday morning about 6:30 with the north wind blowing a gale, fire broke out in the premises of Dr. C. R. Learn on Second Avenue and for a time threatened to assume dangerous proportions. The fire, which is thought to have been caused by defective insulation of the electric light wires, seems to have originated in a clothes closet of a bedroom on the west side of the house. The room had been occupied during the night but at the time the fire was discovered was unoccupied, the family having just arisen. The alarm was given by Mr. Leavitt and the firemen were soon upon the scene. Mr. Tillotson had possession of mind enough to close the bedroom door, thus shutting off the draught and the firemen were enabled to contain the fire to the bedroom and closet. In an attempt to recover her jewel case, Mrs. Learn entered the room but the flames were so fierce she was compelled to give up the attempt. As it was, her hair was scorched in the brief time she was exposed to the flames. The furniture was taken out to safety, but the fire was extinguished before it had spread to other parts of the house. The closet contained all the clothing of the family, their furs and most of their bedding, which was all destroyed. Some valuables and the entire bedroom suite was also destroyed. The house was damaged considerably by water. It is said the loss is covered by insurance but sentimental value attaching to many articles makes this a serious loss, and the inconveniences caused are not recompensed for by the insurance. The efficiency of the brigade showed up well in this instance but the fire-fighting equipment is not adequate as it should be. The alarm system is very poor. No whistle and the bell rung as if it were falsely announcing the hour of day makes an inefficient alarm service. It is fortunate that with the wind as high as it was, the fire was brought under control before the surrounding buildings were menaced.

A Card of Thanks

Dr. C. R. Learn wishes to take this opportunity to thank the Chief and members of the Clareholm Fire Brigade for their prompt and effective service in extinguishing the fire which threatened the destruction of his property and to express his appreciation of the carefulness shown by the brigade in limiting the damage from water as much as possible.

No Soldering There

On the farm of J. A. Gaudin, east of town, some remarkably fast work in threshing out the grain was seen. Within 13 bushels of 3000 bushels of wheat were threshed in one day. Messrs. Mosley and Gundersen, if anyone beats this, they will set them so high a record next time that no one will be able to touch it.

FORT FRASER and surrounding country has ample but not too much rainfall; the weather is warm in summer and bracing in winter; good pure water is abundant.

A RINK PROPOSITION

Once more we consider it a reasonable thing to discuss the matter of making provision for the ice sports so dear to every Canadian who has been fortunate enough to be reared in any part of Canada where ice in winter is a certainty. The shinning of your youthful memory has been systematized into hockey and presented with a set of rules governing many points that the shins had to suffer for in the old game because of a lack of provision for their safety. Every Westerner looks forward to the ice battles that for some years have formed a part of the winter sport. The material for a hockey team, in all probability, is to be found among the youth of this town. An organization could be effected and thereby could work in conjunction with the other forms of ice sport. To have hockey we must have a rink. To have a rink we must have an enthusiasm worked up and that before the winter has set in.

Among the older people there are, no doubt, many old curlers who, "scooped it up" back in Ontario or in the larger towns in the West and who have never lost their affection for the "roaring game." An organization could be effected among the devotees of "boom and boom" and with the assistance of many novices who have always wanted to learn, a good strong club could be constructed. To curl we must have a rink. To have a rink we need the enthusiastic support of the curlers.

And among the ladies and the gentlemen also, doubtless, many who have a fondness for gliding over the ice surface on keen-edged blades and enjoying the sensation "next to flying." Skating is an exercise and a pleasure and to have skating and masquerades and costume nights we must have a rink. To have a rink it is necessary to have a skating organization to work in harmony with the others in collecting the towns people to provide for ice sports.

Roller skating in summer, and even in parts of the other seasons when ice is impracticable, has experienced a revival in the East and South the last two years. The invention of an easy-running, ball-bearing, noiseless, glidable roller-skate has made this sport more popular, eliminating as the newer type of skate has done much of the noise and dust. To have roller skating a rink is required and to have a rink, some one must be found for the seasons when an ice surface cannot be had.

The matter resolves itself into two main questions. Is a covered rink feasible or not? Could a building sufficient to provide for these winter sports be provided and a use found for it in the off seasons to make it productive the year round?

To begin, at the beginning, as we have not been here during your winter, we can be relied upon. In an open rink in any part of the "hinterland" territory, there are periods of a few days now and then that takes the bottom from the ice bed and makes it much harder to renew the ice surface. In a closed rink this is obviated because that once a good ice bed is laid the opening of seasons and the circulation of air, even during the coldest periods only, causes an evaporation of surface moisture which evaporates before the temperature itself becomes so low. We have seen a closed rink and in open air rink in the Central West in which the ice was rickety, the surface practically worn, and the rink closed season when the open rink did not require a good ice surface one-third of the same season. In a closed rink, after a year

The Official Count

The official figures in three of the constituencies of Alberta in the recent federal elections have been announced. The vote in Calgary was: Bennett, 2671; Van Wart, 1816; Masters, 716. Bennett's majority was 2755, and the Socialist loses his deposit. In Red Deer the return gave Clarke 6280; McGillivray, 2857. Thus Clarke's constituency is 2722. In Medicine Hat the vote was: Warneke, 3550; Heron, 2511; Fitcher, 192. The majority for Warneke is 800 and another deposit forfeited. W. A. Buchanan has 1485 majority in Medicine Hat constituency according to figures given officially last Monday.

B. C. Fruitland Co., Ltd.

It Makes Our Mouth Water

Keremeos is the wonderland of the Similkameen. Surrounded by high rocky hills which reflect the sun's rays back to the soil, it produces a variety of fruits, and vegetables the equals of which in quantity and quality I have never seen and the superior of which I doubt exists in Canada. The soil is what geologists tell us is volcanic ash. Left to itself it produces sagebrush on the benches and cottonwood and wild roses, the latter of gigantic proportions, on the low spots. But when cultivated and watered no land can equal it in the production of fruits or vegetables.

The former include apples of the most gorgeous coloring and unrivaled red flavor with splendid keeping qualities; peaches whose flavor, texture and bloom are unrivaled; plums, nectarines, peaches of large proportions and the most luscious flavor; in fact every sort of fruit that flourishes in a temperate or sub-tropical climate. Olives have been successfully grown here as have also peaches.

We went to the famous Richter orchard. It was there last fall. The same trees were laden to breaking under their average load of 20 boxes to the tree. Here are the odd figs ones. On these and a half acre are 350 trees. Each tree averages 20 boxes, total 7,000 boxes. The day before my visit Mr. Richter had sold the apples on the tree for a dollar a box. Think of it $2,000 of three and a half acres and apples are a mere trifle. The trees break well but just grapple the stumps and wait till the grow again. In the entire orchard I did not see a drop under the limbs but the branches of nearly every tree were broken to the ground, not a few were broken off.

Wherever we went in the orchards the apples were hanging on the trees or piled in glorious mounds on the ground. Such color; it would drive an artist mad to reproduce it, deep, unguessed red of the reddest red, not your sky blushing bloom of modest maidenhood but the brazen, challenging red made by the fierce kiss of the glowing Keremeos sun; the laughing, riotous blaze of color that comes of the warm caress of that bold, passionate word, Old Sol. Visitors to the National Apple Show will have a chance to judge of the color, beauty, size and maybe the flavor of the Keremeos apple. One enthusiast inside that the Garden of Eden must have been in Keremeos for nowhere else could Eve have found such tempting apples with which to beguile Adam. And the Keremeos vegetable? Only those who have been regaled upon their tender lusciousness can appreciate them. The potatoes glisten like four of diamonds in their nearly, snowy whiteness. A Keremeos spud would move the heart of a misanthrope to poetry. Even the far famed Ascherly mustard seeds for the regal table of the Keremeos. In size and number to the hill I have never seen their equal.

Yesterday we drove by a lot where a man was digging potatoes. I asked him how the crop was. "Not very," he replied. "Show us some," said I, and the man picked up three which made an amulet, and came over to the fence. One of them was a bunch all grown together, enough to supply an ordinary family for a week. I measured the bunch. It was eleven inches long. No wonder the average crop of potatoes in Keremeos is fifteen tons to the acre. At this date, Oct. 8, no frost has yet killed the vines, most of which are green, with the potatoes still growing. Tomatoes! Vancouver people who know only the water, stringy things ripened in the dark which come from down south somewhere and cost 25 cents a pound, cannot know a real tomato until they try one of the Keremeos variety. Slice up a Keremeos tomato and you have a delicious, meaty thing with a color that charms the eye as the flavor pleases the palate. In the sun there is nothing I have ever seen to compare with the Keremeos tomato. Every housewife knows the kind of luscious colored bunch of strings in a can of flavorless water and seeds that the average eastern tomato is. When Keremeos canned tomatoes are regularly supplied to Vancouver households the eastern initiative will find a sale only in the soup kitchens and cheap hash houses. I have sampled them and I know.

I could go on and describe the melons, the cantaloupes, the lettuce, the vegetables, the pumpkins, the carrots and the riot of other field and garden products now ripening in the Keremeos sun, but I have not space to exceed my allotted space for this week. I hope I have aroused some interest in the wonderful garden with in 200 miles of Vancouver.

New Newspaper

MacLeod is to have another newspaper in the near future. It will be started as a weekly but the understanding is that a daily paper is eventually contemplated as the town grows. The paper will be controlled by the same syndicate which runs the Calgary Herald, the Edmonton Journal and the Lethbridge News. It will be Conservative in politics. The name is not yet announced and the editor is, we understand, coming from the East. Quarters have been suggested in the building on 23rd street, opposite the Macleod Club, and the plant, formerly used in the publication of the Fort Saskatchewan Reporter, is said to be on its way here.—Macleod Advertiser.

Lethbridge's Decker With Salt Lake

(Salt Lake Republicans)

J. W. McNeil, of Lethbridge, Alberta, chairman of the international dry farming congress; J. L. Manwar, secretary of the board of trade of Lethbridge, and Arthur Perry, a prominent rancher of Cardston, Canada, reached Salt Lake today en route to the international dry farming congress which holds its annual meeting at Colorado Springs, Colo., October 16.

Messrs. McNeil and Manwar held a conference with members of the publicity bureau of the Commercial club this morning and it was arranged to have Utah throw her support to Lethbridge, Alberta, for the next meeting of the congress, in exchange for which the Canadians promise to support Salt Lake for the 1933 meeting.

The Canadian delegation of 100 will go to Colorado Springs on a specially equipped Great Northern train, accompanied by the Canadian paper's lead, a famous Alberta organizer. A special exhibition will be made by the government of Alberta in charge of E. L. Richardson, the ex-press of the Alberta agricultural department. The Hon. Duncan Macleod, minister of agriculture for Saskatchewan, the mayor of Lethbridge and other prominent officials will accompany the train.

On their return home the party will stop in Salt Lake, Saturday, October 21. A special program for the entertainment of the guests is being arranged by the Commercial club, including a visit to Saltair, and an automobile sightseeing trip about the city.

Helpful Hints On Hair Health

Scalp and Hair Troubles Generally Caused by Carelessness.

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe which also produces baldness. Never use a comb or brush belonging to some one else. No matter how cleanly the owner may be, these articles may be infected with microbes, which will infect your scalp. It is far easier to catch hair microbes than it is to get rid of them, and a single stroke of an infected comb or brush may well lead to baldness. Never try on anybody else's hat. Many a hat-band is a resting place for microbes.

If you happen to be troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair or baldness, we have a remedy which we believe will completely relieve these troubles. We are so sure of this that we offer it to you with the understanding that it will cost you nothing for the trial if it does not share the results we claim. This remedy is called "Retall '88" Hair Tonic. We honestly believe it to be the most scientific remedy for scalp and hair troubles, and we know of nothing else that equals it for effectiveness, because of the results it has produced in thousands of cases.

"Retall '88" Hair Tonic is derived from a hair-dandruff, restore natural color when its loss has been brought about by disease, and make the hair naturally silky, soft and glossy. It does this because it stimulates the hair follicles, destroys the germ matter, and brings about a free

Heavy-weight Contest

The generous prizes offered by a local merchant for the heaviest half dozen potatoes has produced some very fine specimens. W. McAllister has found six weighing fourteen pounds. One of the six weighs alone three ounces short of three pounds and the second of these big spuds is two and one-half pounds in weight. Jas. McKinney is to the fore with spuds of the red variety which weigh 14 lbs. 13 oz., the largest tippling the scales at 8 lbs. 2 oz. This record for potatoes is beaten by one raised by W. J. Harris, which weighed 3 lbs. 7 oz. Mr. McKinney's contribution consists of a half dozen of the white variety of very regular size but their aggregate weight is but nine pounds.

Making Game of Hunters

During the latter part of last week two of our local nimrods had an experience which will no doubt linger long in their memories as a little bit the biggest time in their lives. While out for a chicken shoot they camped at a deserted log cabin in the hills and after depositing their camping outfit inside proceeded to try and find a few birds to shoot. While they were thus engaged two mischievous hounds appeared at the cabin and made themselves at home by going through the outfit. Not satisfied with taking the game and most of the grub which they required a hare from the buggy side and carefully replaced the cap in the hub of the wheel. By a lucky chance the act was found out before the wheel came off and a vigorous search for the missing hare was made, but without resulting in favor of the searchers. The jokers next went to the stable and seeing the harness hanging on the wall the bright idea struck them to "hoist" to remove a trap from one of the sets of harness, which they did and carefully hid beneath the hay in a manger. This caused another hunt before the boys could hitch up. As a "hunting" trip it was indeed full of "hunts" and as an exercise for body and vocabulary proved a great success. The boys arrived home late and weary. Com.

Won Away From Home

Our best horseman pulled down one of the purses at the postponed Sturdy Fair just last Friday. J. L. Reinecke led in the race for all winning both heats. J. T. Kingsley took second in both heats. The Kennebec led in the race for the 1 mile. J. W. Watt's horse broke the longer distance and would have made a closer race at the 1 mile.

Selling Fruit Lands

G. S. Lawrence of B. C. Fruitlands Co., Vancouver, B. C., was here this week in the interests of their Kootenay valley lands. When here a month or so ago, a sale was made to W. C. Bowen, who went to look into the proposition on the ground and then made the purchase. Mr. Lawrence invites any interested person to make fullest enquiries before accepting his word regarding these lands. G. S. (Gibbons) of the same firm will be here for some time to represent the Co. here making his headquarters at the Queen's hotel. Mr. Gibbons arrived Tuesday night.

Very Well Received

You know at the Open House on Thursday night of last week was well received by a very good audience. The earlier seats were not up to the mark of the third and last one. The company is not so well balanced as one would wish but the good work of Mr. Brattonstrom can be complimented. The audience laughed loud and loud and perhaps that is as good a word as can be said for this play.

The Golden Opportunity

Among the persons who have recently made provision for old age when it comes are two sisters aged respectively 33 and 31 years. They have purchased from the Canadian Government a Last Survivor Annuity that is an annuity which will give them together an income of $800 a year so long as the last of them to be continued to the survivor so long as she lives. The cost of this annuity $804.65, had been invested at 5 per cent and had brought in less than $185 annually, with the difficulty and annoyance of reinvestment. The annuity becomes payable when the younger sister attains the age of 55, and should both the before that time the purchase money will be refunded to their heirs with 3 per cent compound interest. Each is now earning her own living and the sum paid is the fruit of their labors for a number of years. They were thus able the better to appreciate their splendid opportunity. A cord of enquiry addressed to the Superintendent of Canadian Government Annuities, Ottawa will secure for you any information you desire on the subject.

Charles Holmes, formerly manager of the Pioneer Lumber Co., and here and latterly the manager at Cardston, has been appointed auditor and collector for the office of the company at Nanton, Grange, Shively, Barron and Claresholm. He will make Claresholm his headquarters. Mr. Holmes received a warm welcome upon his return here.

THEY'LL ALL TELL YOU THE SAME

I have a story to tell you.

And I hope you will listen to me.

For I want to tell you something

That will of great benefit be.

It cost me a lot of worry

And trouble to find it out;

And that I would like to tell you

What the trouble was all about.

This is how it happened:

That I had these troubles of mine:

A smooth-tongued disk chap came along

And spent two days of time;

He shot my eyes and stung me

For I bought his disk machine;

He said he could wash it by "sponging,"

But wife found it hard to clean.

When the company fair was in progress,

Was walking about the grounds,

Got into a crowd of people

Men and women standing around.

I saw a sign above them

(He better two feet wide)

"THE SHARPLESS DAIRY TUBULAR

HAS NO DISKS INSIDE."

I read the sign over and over;

But of course I did not know

Why no disks were needed.

But I found out why 'twas so

I looked the Tubular over.

I listened to every word

Said to me by the salesman:

Simplest story you ever heard.

He told us of the principle

Of The World's Best machine,

And showed us how 'twas different

From others we had seen.

Told why it had twice the spinning force

And needed no disk "filling."

And that to wash it every day

The women were all willing.

Turned slower than the others;

The wheels all ran in oil;

The bowl, by being simple

I couldn't run more sticky;

The milk passed through unimpeded;

Wouldn't last a whole lifetime;

Nothing to get out of order;

Two simple, neat and strong.

I think I took ten minutes

Making up my mind

That the Tubular was the one for me.

The best one I could find.

I bought one of the larger size;

I couldn't run more sticky;

And the way it took care of our milk

Made the disk machine look sick.

Now, I've tried to tell you plainly,

So you will understand,

That the Tubular separator

Is the best one in the land.

And to any smooth-tongued disk chap

You only need to say,

"I'll finally have a Tubular,

So I'll get it right away."
